7. Site Council Elections Recap	Dong	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Completed on Friday, Apr 11, 2025 . Shout out to Ms. Carpio because she is so willing to help send out messages to the whole staff. Had 3 candidates for two spots, Rebecca Hoy and Nicole Garcia won. Grace Contreras also ran, but did not get a spot. This is Mr. Rubin's last meeting. Thank you for your participation. Ms. Garcia's term will begin next year.
8. Next Year - Future Planning a. Future Agenda Items	Dong	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recruitment - parents, students, community members; Events to attend; Activities to engage in/support on campus - Club tool kits to help them if they have events or field trips they would like to do. Each member should bring a guest to meetings. Time during Fall PD to talk about Site Council As part of Civic Engagement - could they attend a meeting; might count towards Civic Seal, working in conjunction with Govt teachers. Freshman Orientation, when students check-out laptops. Peter Terrazas - has not sent an update at this time. He is working on the alumni association. Create a "task force" or committee that could help teachers/clubs think of ways to request funding? 4 times a year is not very often for us to be effective, unless we meet more often. Create a form to get interest in the site council and show a QR code when presenting to parents (like before open house) so they can be informed when our meetings happen to encourage them to come. More dances - More Spirit Days TED Talks; Campus Spotlights (Talent Show,

		Poetry Slams, Creator Space) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Benches, more trash cans • Family Engagement Teams - Booster Clubs - Murals, Music, Performances, • School Spirit Initiatives - painting and redoing branding; gift giveaways; ways to motivate students to come (DJ playing music) Swag
